Dear Sir.

sorry to be annoying to you.
as the baseball season draws near I now would like to know when your team is going to start for spring training.
I don't guess you remember me mr. manly. my names is Tommy. I'm the fellow that was recommended to you by mr. Douglass Smith of the giants. the latter part of last season an you said you would Give me a try out this spring when the Ballclub goes to train this year, Mr. Monley would it ask to much of you to drop me a card or a letter to let me know just when your going to leave and where to go, so I can make arrangements to quit my job when it is time to. Please excuse this terrible writing and I do hope your can understand it

good bye
 yours Truly
 From
